

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am grateful to my parents and family for their unconditional love and moral support, for their discretion, patience and understanding through this long journey.

I am greatly indebted to my advisers: Pr. Jeffrey Miller who was always eager to help and provided continuous assistance and true inspiration; and Pr. René Sandretto who let me be part of the cotutelle agreement and never ceased to encourage me, even in the most uncertain times. The members of my advisory committee, Pr. Stacie Beck, Pr. Xavier Richet, and Dr. Neven Valev provided insightful comments and timely suggestions.

I also wish to thank my colleagues at HLB Decision Economics, for their understanding and support. Special thanks go to Dr. Khalid Bekka, for his numerous advices; and Dr. David Lewis, for never failing to remind me that a good thesis is a thesis done!

I am grateful to Barbara and Paul Zitlau for their generosity and kindness through my student years (and beyond), and for their relentless encouragements. They gave a whole new meaning to the word “host-family.”

My gratitude to Emmanuelle Bayon – who provided invaluable help and support for years – is unabated.
